

Mother Lode Fair - Small Livestock Auction

Sunday, July 7, 2019 at 2:30 PM

Market & breeding animals: Goats & Rabbits

There are 2 auctions, held back-to-back.

Mother Lode Fair Small Livestock Auction: proceeds returned to the youth seller.

Small Livestock Benefit Auction: proceeds are donated to the Small Livestock Association for scholarships, awards, fair equipment & supplies.

NO POULTRY: There are no Turkeys or Chickens at the Fair this year due to Virulent Newcastle Disease in California.

ADMISSION: 2018 buyers receive 2 Fair admission tickets for the 2019 Auction. If you are not a 2018 buyer, you can purchase Fair admission tickets or contact SLA to inquire about a limited number of new buyer passes. Come early to walk through the barns and see the animals raised by 4-H, FFA, and independent junior exhibitors.

BOB MILLER MEMORIAL BBQ: 2 complimentary BBQ tickets for every lot purchased at the Auctions. Additional tickets may be purchased in the serving line. The BBQ follows the Auctions, serving goat, rabbit, chicken and turkey.

LIVE TAKE HOME is possible for any animal purchased.

BUYER DELIVERY: Buyers of Market Rabbits pick up your processed animals on Monday, July 8 from 4-5 PM at the Fairgrounds Rabbit barn. Fresh not frozen!

MARKET GOATS: Have your purchase custom cut and wrapped for your family or business. Or choose to have the animal resold to a meat packer at market price and pay only the difference. Market price will be posted at the sale.

IF YOU CAN'T ATTEND THE AUCTION LET US BUY FOR YOU
