MOTHER LODE FAIR

CAREN EILRICH PERPETUAL AWARD - OUTSTANDING SMALL LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR

Awarded to the Tuolumne County outstanding exhibitor of small livestock. Open to exhibitors of Cavies, Goats, Poultry, and Rabbits at the Mother Lode Fair in their second year of showing and above. Not open to 4-H Primary members and Primary showmanship does not count toward years of eligibility. Applications for this award must be received at the fair office by the livestock entry deadline, Friday, June 3, 2022. Application to be completed by Exhibitor. Interviews for this award will be conducted on Saturday, July 2 beginning at 9:00 AM. See the Interview Schedule posted in the Rabbit/Poultry barn on Friday. Applicants must wear official show uniform during interview and furnish a printed copy of their project records. Each candidate may make use of an individual descriptive display; if not entered as an exhibit, it may only be in place during the time of interview. Judging is under the supervision of the Tuolumne County Small Livestock Exhibitors' Association.
